Chief Scout Award Mentor's Declaration

I have met with the youth member above and discussed their Award journey, how I can support them and agreed the necessary Award challenges. I will support and continually assess as appropriate. The young person will commence their Award Journey no earlier than receipt of application.

Agreed Starting Date

(Date in the near future of this application)

Special Notes

All participants will also need to 'sign up' on the Gaisce website www.gaisce.ie to register directly for the Gaisce Award. Your Chief Scout Award Mentor will advise you directly on how to do this.

The commencement date for the CSA Award is agreed above with Mentor. This date should be in the future, by a few weeks, so that this application has time to be processed - it is best to wait until you receive an Award Logbook / receipt before an applicant starts their Award journey.

The registration fee (detailed below) is paid directly to Scouting Ireland

The registration fee for Scout/Venture Scout is (Gaisce ROI) €15 Bronze and €20 Silver / (DofE NI) £16.

The registration fee for Rover Scouts is (Gaisce ROI) €25 Gold / (DofE NI) £23.

The payment should be made payable to 'Scouting Ireland' and sent to Chief Scout Award Administrator, Scouting Ireland, Larch Hill, Dublin 16.
